Pray For Me

Here is where the road divides
Here is where we realize
The sculpting of the Father's great design
Thru' time you've been a friend to me
But time is now the enemy
I wish we didn't have to say goodbye
But I know the road He chose for me
Is not the road He chose for you
So as we chase the dreams we're after

Pray for me and I'll pray for you
Pray that we will keep the common ground
Won't you pray for me and I'll pray for you
And one day love will bring us back around again

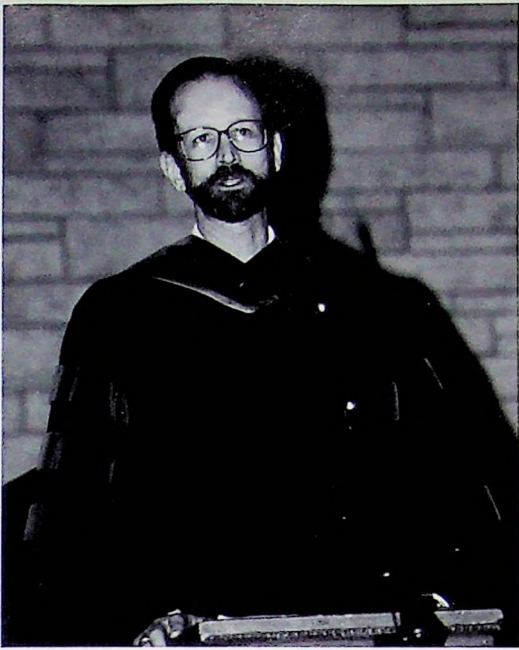

Painted on our tapestry
We see the way it has to be
Weaving thru' the laughter and the tears
But love will be the tie that binds us
To the time we leave behind us
Memories will be our souvenirs
And I know that thru' it all
The hardest part of love is letting go
But there's a greater love that holds us

Pray for me and I'll pray for you
Pray that we will keep the common ground
Won't you pray for me and I'll pray for you
And one day love will bring us back around again
I know that love will bring us back around again.

Senior Soliloquy

MCC Class of 1994

It's time to discuss the seniors in this, our favorite part of the year.

So just relax, I'll get the ax, and we'll see what will appear. Our seniors hail from far away to nearby Oklahoma. They can't get us back, alas and alack, 'cause they don't yet have a diploma.

Petite Anita Adair is like a Southern belle. She's played a lot of basketball, and led our cheers well. She hangs around an Okie, with an obvious pedilection. Many gals around are envious of her beautiful complexion.

Crazy Kerry Basinger is an all around guy. He's a great musician, yet he can manage TCBY. Always ready to laugh, he can be serious, too. He enjoys life immensely, and will laugh with, not at, you.

Christy Bloodworth's a volleyball pro, that's easy to see. We've enjoyed her personality, now, haven't we. She picked a doozy of a wedding date--Labor Day Weekend, that is. But first things first--her man's a soccer whiz.

Dennis Zacchaeus Bloodworth will try anything once. He's a mischievous ball of energy, but he's no dunce. Excited about ministry, at soccer he's also neat. He licked peanut butter from between R.D.'s toes--quite a feat!

R. D. Cogswell is an ornery type guy. It's a real handy trait of his that he can jump high. He spends much of his time working with troubled youth. He knows what being in trouble is like--and that's the truth.

Brave Shawn Condra likes a challenge and never gets harried. So he adopted a houseful of guys right after he got married. A spiritual, athletic guy, he gets many awards on the side. It's a good thing he's married to Wendy, or he might be too dignified.

Aimee Doud Cornforth in her Rocky Mountain jeans Was everybody's mother, counselled often, so it seems. She's a fireball, an athlete; got the Servant's Heart award. She's even been to Russia, working for the Lord.

A gal with a heart for ministry is our Wendy Daves. She's immersed herself in music; for TS she gets raves. She has entertained us, shared her joy, to smile she's not afraid. If she could figure out how to get a van to go ninety, she'd have it made!

David Dettwiler is our golfing champ. He doesn't need hints from Stu or John--they his style would cramp. Interested in missions, he revels in things that are foreign. We guess that is why he spends so much time in classes with Dr. Warren.

David French has been here several years, give or take a few. His heaven is Computerland--he likes them old or new. A manager at Arby's, he can direct without a flinch. His hair may look Italian, but he's really French.

Fun-loving Jami Frey, our demolition queen, Has added to our entertainment. At repartee she's keen. She's dedicated, organized, a super motivator. She's headin' out for graduate school so they can educate her.

Our next esteemed senior is Brian Grier, Who called us to sanity when times were drear. His boldness has shown that he's not just a jester. He took three Sullivan classes--in one semester.

Staci Hall's persistent; she will dig in till it's done. She's organized a gospel team, with kids has lots of fun. Her friendly smile has blessed us; she will help us in a minute. Her hairdos have amazed at times; one had a spider in it.

Julie Hathaway can make friends at the snap of a finger. She drives a flashy white Honda Prelude; with that, who has to linger? Athletic, she has hopped to six different schools to get her learning. She hopes to work for SRS in Dallas--that's her yearning.

MCC's own Michelangelo, Laurin Hill, you might surmise, Turns his ingenious energies into artwork to please our eyes. By heart he knows The Little Mermaid. With his fast talk he's relative. His talents cannot be outdone: even his car wrecks are creative.

A cousin of Sherlock you-know-who is our Dale Holmes. Quiet, dedicated, good student is he--digesting those impressive tomes. His empathy extends quite far, clear into the family class, Where he provided quite a show. Hiram Cassel, will he pass?

Studious Tim Jones earned his degree in three years. When it comes to hard work, he's a saint that perseveres. He plans to stay in graduate school; he's earnest as can be. One of these days, before we know it, he'll be a Ph.D.

Our resident actor Kevin Kelly has talent coming out his ears Punctuated by golden earrings; he's completely oblivious to fears. He's manufactured overheads; there's been no time to be bored. The lead in Hamlet, he pleased us with his Hollywood granny award.

StuCo president Tracy Kirkpatrick, an organizer par excellence. Is able to get people to work together; harmony is one of her wants. She's active in sports, and dedicated. Determination is in her voice. The mail room role will test her control. Do you think she will be a re-Joyce?

by Ruth Ann Warren

Jason Kohler is a right courageous soul
Who's working and serving while he heads for his goal.
Keeping Sears in line, and Crestview youth teaching,
He's heading for criminal justice; he'll keep on preaching.

A friendly gal who smiles a lot is our next grad, Kim Kohler.
She'll have a great time as Jason's wife, least that's what he tol' her.
Her writing's superb! She's lots of fun. She likes to work with kids.
She's sponsored youth at Crestview, there with Jason as he bids.

A man of few words, John Lewis is plucky.
He's Doc Warren's grader--how could he be so lucky?
A top-notch student, he helps set the curve.
Not many approach him. They haven't the nerve.

Mr. Magic, alias Bill Minihan, is a comic, so it's said.
According to his picture, more than knowledge has passed through his head.
He could do an incredible service MCC to repair
If he could only make big bucks appear right out of thin air.

Richard Mosqueda smiles consistently, even when he's asleep.
That's what his friends say anyway. They no secrets keep.
He's led student spiritual life--his spirit is astounding.
He works well on teams, and no one screams, he's dumbfound ing.

A pro at taking late exams is Barry Park the preacher.
The youngest of three to graduate, he married a lovely teacher.
In cowboy boots he makes his way wherever he wants to go.
He's a weight lifter, so don't mess with him, but he has a good heart, you know.

The Albuquerque kid Chris Reynolds has ministry in mind.
In spite of his tough exterior, his heart is extremely kind.
His great sense of humor helps when he tries to water ski.
The places he's worked, from xerox to pasta, never the same will be.

Free spirit Kelly Reynolds has shaped up this town.
From St. Mary to Wal-Mart, she's got this place down.
She wants to help people--that's where her life goal leads.
She's gonna' do well, because she likes to meet needs.

Graduate Pete Smith is an easy-going fellow.
Like Shawn, he adopted students; he's really very mellow.
He married Lisa, whose first name's not Mona.
Pete slaves away for Rabbi Isom. He'd rather be in Barcelona.

Scott Spradlin's a teacher straight from the word "go."
Self defense, sign language--whatever you want to know.
He's headed for Belfast to work in inner city life.
We'll pray for the Irish--and for his lovely wife.

"Legs" Jim Steelman, the last of the Columbia boys.
Got several awards in basketball, and those weren't just toys.
He's a natural with kids; his involvement isn't temporary.
He can't stand germs, he wiggles and squirms--are basketballs sanitary?

Robynn Tolbert, our expert writer, will someday have her name on a book.
She's fun and she's serious, reserved and delirious; there's little she ain't undertook.
She's interested in marriage and family therapy, a well-rounded lass.
But she stoned poor Rabbi Isom--right during class!

Terrie Woodward has been a real joy to have around.
She has a sweet, happy spirit; yet she stands her ground.
Her heart is aimed toward missions, where she'll work with the masses.
She tried to evangelize people of Honduras using words from Dr. Warren's classes.

That's all the seniors we have this year, so we will wind this down.
We hope it brought a smile to your faces, and not an infernally frown.
Thank you for listening to our little ramble. This is not a disguise.
These facts are the very honest truth; you know they couldn't be lies.
Well, most of 'em.

Spiritual Life Committee

Under the leadership of Richard Mosqueda and Angela Walters, this committee worked to develop the spiritual life of MCC students.

Committee members met weekly to pray for students, faculty, and the school. They led chapel services that challenged students to keep their personal prayer life with God vital. They also sponsored a "Newly Wed Game/Family Feud" night at Ned's Place.

A special project this year was the Prayer Walk. Invitations to join MCC in a special time of prayer on April 14th were issued to Bible colleges across the country. Nine schools joined us as we prayed for twenty four hours for our churches, families, government leaders, colleges, and a topic selected by each school.

The climax of the period was the public prayer walk as students rotated through four stations on campus during a one-hour period. Committee members with faculty volunteers led prayer in each station. To close this special time everyone gathered around the bell tower.

Some of the members of Student Spiritual Life Committee are: Richard Mosqueda, Trish Williams, Nicki Klufa, Angela Walters, Anita Adair, Kevin Dulin, Kara Foster, and Bobby Graham.

Cheerleading: spirit!

MCC Cheerleaders proudly received the 1994 Men's Basketball Cheerleading Award at the Midwest Christian College Conference Tournament. It was the first time in twenty years that our cheerleaders have received this honor.

"I was really proud of the cheerleaders this year. Being chosen for this award was a great honor, and their hard work and dedication were well rewarded."

--Lisa Smith

Left: Robbie once again defies the law of gravity. Below: The loyal fans of the MCC Crusaders show that they are "true blue through and through."

Above: Participating in the wild and crazy events of this year's first Pep Rally are volleyball players, Sasha Kirkpatrick and Shelly Foster. Right: Go, Big Blue!

Intramurals, etc.

Pam Lee keeps her eye on the ball as she serves to her opponents.

First Place Softball Team: Jason Whyte, Lindsay Beville, Kevin Dulin, Jeremy Eubanks, Eileen Clark, Heather McCune, Amy Befort, Devin Wendt, Greg Wilson, Darren Key, Bill Minihan, Randy Harris, Kelly

"Batter watch out!" South-Paw Trish Williams puts everything into her pitch.

First Place Volleyball Team: Kevin Segal, Tracy Kirkpatrick, Bill Minihan, Kami Umbarger, Felicity Dunagan, Jeff Isaacs, Genesis Ferch, Mark Hostetter, Silfane Holmes

Above: At our own rendition of "Saturday Night at the Fights" Josh Whyte and Randy Harris slug it out.
